

The Robin Corbett Award for Prisoner Re-integration

Application form for 2019 Awards

(Please use as much space as you need to fully answer the questions and note word limits when specified)

For prison governors/directors/senior management:

1. Prison governor/director/senior manager endorsing the nomination:
2. Prison:
3. Statement of governor/director/senior manager setting out the contribution that the charity or not-for-profit body makes to prisoner re-integration:

---

Nominated charity or not for profit body:

4. Legal name of charity or not-for-profit body:
5. Charity number (if applicable):
6. Name, role, telephone number and email address of contact person in nominated organisation:
7. From the most recent annual accounts, (year ended: March 2018) please tell us the total:

Income: £

Expenditure: £

Unrestricted reserves: £

8. Describe the work which you are nominating for an award (100 words max)
9. How does your work contribute to prisoners being able to re-integrate in society after release? (350 words max)
10. How does your work help prisoners to take responsibility for themselves and to help others? (250 words max)
11. What is the evidence of your work succeeding?
- 12.
- From prisoners, during and/or after custody
  - From other sources
- (250 words max)
13. How would you use the prize money and the profile that comes with the Award? (max 100 words)

The deadline for nominations is Friday 7 December 2018

Please send nominations marked 'The Robin Corbett Award' to:

Zoe Burton
Prison Reform Trust,
15 Northburgh Street, London EC1V 0JR

Or to: zoe.burton@prisonreformtrust.org.uk